The Summer school - "Ukraine and the world" is a new and unforgettable experience.

During our study, we developed self-presentation skills in new conditions, a feeling of our own identities and the ability to understand others.

At the Adam Mickiewicz University, we understood that Ukraine and Poland are very similar but at the same time - different. We all want to become a part of the Great Europe but with our own identities.

We understood our belonging to the Western civilization.

For Ukraine, Poland plays the role of an agent between the West and the East. Thank you for your solidarity and support to Ukraine."

~Anzhelika Zhulenko, Student of Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv

"The AMU Summer School "Ukraine and the World", 25.06-1.07.2023 was a great experience for me.

Probably the most important thing was the people who were there: Ukrainian and Polish students, teachers, and organisers. This is an inspiring community that makes you want to grow and develop.

I admire Poles who learn Ukrainian and are interested in our culture and even know how to dance hopak. I would like to thank our lecturers for their relevant topics and interesting information and Natalia Romaniuk for her incredible workshops on drawing, modelling, salsa and yoga.

Moreover, everything took place in a great location. Thanks to the organisation of the Summer school "Ukraine and the World", 25.06-1.07.2023 in Dębina Palace, we had good places to study, relax and conduct various activities.

I think that such events are the beginning of both strong friendships and new international cooperation projects.

~ Zhulenko Anzhelika, Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv

I am writing to you sometime after the end of summer school Ukraine and the World. Crises, migrations, identities in contemporary culture, held from 25 to 30 June.

I needed these three weeks of distance to gain a suitable perspective to understand the importance of what happened in those days. Today, I am sure that several extremely crucial things happened.

First and foremost, our Ukrainian friends had the opportunity to have a mental rest from the difficult everyday life of war. It was with great satisfaction that I watched the internal tension brought back from across the eastern border dissolve into dozens of new positive experiences. The words of the participants, "I can't hold back my smile" or " This is my first dance since 24 February", still ring in my ears and constantly evoke emotion.

The friendships I made with my Polish colleagues during my stay (thank you, on this occasion, for the opportunity to meet students of Ukrainian studies in Poznań) are already bearing fruits with plans and ideas.

None of it would have happened if it were not for the conditions created by your team. I feel both gratitude and great appreciation for the action, you put in so that further summer schools can be held in this charming corner of Greater Poland.

I am sincerely proud that jointly, we belong to the Adam Mickiewicz University community."

~ Ryszard Kupidura, PhD, Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań

The summer school "Ukraine and the World. Crises, migrations, identities in contemporary culture" was an unforgettable educational and intercultural experience, which will result in close cooperation between Ukrainian universities and Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań.
