

TRAVELLING THROUGH SLAVIC WORLDS

EPICUR UNIVERSITIES
CONFERENCE
25TH OF JUNE 2021

Faculty of Polish and Classical Philology
Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan, PL

Wydział Filologii
Polskiej i Klasycznej
UAM w Poznaniu

10.00 – ON-LINE INAUGURATION: AMU Vice-Rector for International Cooperation, Rafał Witkowski

10.15 – 12.30 – ON-LINE PANEL: Methodological Aspects of Contemporary Slavic Studies

Chair: Tomasz Mizerkiewicz (AMU, Dean of Dept. of Polish and Classical Philology)

Victoire Feuillebois on behalf of Emilia Koustova (Strasbourg University): Slavic studies in France

Heinrich Kirschbaum (Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg): A Coming-Out of the Scientific Literariness: a Raw Induction and an Epicurean Assemblage

Ewa Kraskowska (Adam Mickiewicz University Poznań): The Tradition and the Present Day of Translation Studies at the Institute of Polish Philology in Poznań

Ivo Pospíšil (Masaryk University Brno): The Slavonic Studies at the Crossroads: Redefining or Preserving?

Tvrtko Vuković (University of Zagreb): Modern Literary Criticism in Croatia: Development and Current Situation

Bogusław Zieliński (Adam Mickiewicz University Poznań): Sławistyka wobec wyzwań współczesności / Slavic Studies in the Face of Contemporary Challenges

13.30 – 16.00 ON-LINE PANEL: Journeys Through Slavdom, Journeys of Slavs. Literal & Free Approaches

Chair: Emilia Koustova (Strasbourg University)

Lana Molvarec (University of Zagreb): India in the 20th Century Croatian Literary Imagination

Mirzana Kodrić Pasić (University of Sarajevo):
Bosnian/Bosniak Travel Writing and Muslim Orient and European West

Wawrzyniec Popiel-Machnicki (Adam Mickiewicz University): Bronisława Grąbczewskiego „słowiańskie” postrzeganie Orientu w aspekcie rozważań postkolonialnych/Postcolonial Aspect of Bronisław
Grąbczewski's “Slavic” Perception of the Orient

Jiří Januška (Charles University Prague): Exploring the "Sediments" of Slavic and Non-Slavic Language Contact in the Central European Region

Sanja Lazarević Radak (University of Belgrade):
Geography of Childhood: Discursive Infantilization of Serbia in British and American Interwar Travel Accounts

Discussion

13.30 – 16.00 ON-LINE PANEL: Cultural Slavic Contacts.

Chair: Ivo Pospíšil (Masaryk University Brno)

Ariko Kato (Nagoya University of Foreign Studies/Washington): The Myth of „Yellow Peril“ in Interwar Polish Literature

Alice Jedličková (Ústav pro českou literaturu AV ČR): Intermediality as an Alternative Approach in Intercultural Studies

Ostap Sływynski (Ivan Franko National University of Lviv): Pop culture, tragedy and politics of Memory: Clichés of Mass Literature in Modern Ukrainian, Polish and Bulgarian Historical Fiction

Emilia Kledzik (Adam Mickiewicz University Poznań): Constructing Roma Identity in Romni Poetry in Central Europe after 1945 - a Comparative Perspective

Sanjin Kodrić (University of Sarajevo): Borderlines and crossroads: Bosniak and Bosnian-Herzegovinian Literature and Inter/Cultural and Inter/Literary Contacts and Relations

Discussion

13.30 – 16.00 ON-LINE PANEL: International Research Projects in the Field of Slavic Studies.

Chair: Tvrtko Vuković (University of Zagreb)

Yinhui Mao (Guangdong University of Foreign Studies): The Multidimensionality of International Cooperation of the GDUFS Institute of Polish Studies in Guangdong in the Age of Globalization /Wielowymiarowość współpracy międzynarodowej Instytutu Polonistyki GDUFS w Kantonie w dobie globalizacji

Grzegorz Krajewski (Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg): Linguistic and Glottodidactic Aspects of Incomplete Polish-German Bilingualism 2012-2015

Agata Firlej (Adam Mickiewicz University): Poznań-Prague-Giessen-Marburg Cooperation in the Field of Holocaust Literature Studies

Maria Ilcheva (University of Veliko Tarnovo): On the Road to Innovative Education and Digital Transformation (Presentation of an International Project for Modernization of Educational Programs in Humanities and Social Sciences in Partnership with Three Bulgarian and Three International Universities).

Maciej Junkiert (Adam Mickiewicz University): Easternisation and Enlightenment. The Concept of the New Europe after 30 years.

Discussion

16.30 – 18.00 Epicur Slavic Round Table.

