

THE PRESS IN SMALL COUNTRIES AND REGIONS IN EUROPE - METHODOLOGICAL SEMINAR - POZNAŃ (POLAND) 8-9 November, 2018

Adam Mickiewicz University (AMU)
Faculty of Political Science and Journalism
89a Umultowska St., Poznań, Poland

Thursday, 8 November 2018

9:00 - 9:20 – Opening ceremony with Mayor of Poznań, Rector of AMU, Dean of the Faculty (room 43).

9:20 - 10:15- Introducing the topic of the seminar:

The Press in small countries and regions in Europe: Common themes and research questions for our research (room 43)

Keynote speakers: Prof. Frédéric Antoine and Rémy Bersipont (University of Louvain).

Coffee break

10:30 -12:00 - Introducing Session A

The Press in Europe - Economic, Legal, Technological Trends on European Markets. Media Policy during Digital Transition (room 43).

Chair: Prof. Jędrzej Skrzypczak (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań),

- Prof. Stanisław Jędrzejewski (Kozminski University, Warsaw) - Looking at the mid-term future: some general trends in the evolution of media and content industries,
- Prof. Bohdan Jung (SGH Warsaw School of Economics) - New Economics of Digital Media,
- Maciej Hoffman (Director of The Polish Association of Journalists and Publishers "ReproPol") and Jacek Wojtaś (The EU Affairs Co-ordinator of the Polish Chamber of Press Publishers) - New copyright rules for Press Publishers in the digital age,
- Dominik Księski (Member of the Board of the Press Publishers Chamber, Owner of the "Wulkan Publishing House", editor-in-chief of "Pałuki" weekly) – Current trends on the Polish Press Market - changes resulting from new technologies and the Internet.
- Discussion

12:00 -13:15 - Introducing Session B. The Press in Europe - Economic, Legal, Technological Trends on European Markets. Media Policy during Digital Transition (room 43).

Chair: Bartosz Hordecki (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań)

- Keynote speaker: Mario Viola de Azevedo Cuhna (CMPF European University Institute, Florence) - Media Viability in Europe: the experience of the Media Pluralism Monitor.
- Discussion

13:15-14:00 - Lunch.

Lunch will be served in Faculty's Canteen

Thursday, 8 November 2018 - Afternoon's sessions - - open to the members of the seminar

14:00 -16:00 - Session 1. General discussion about the topic of the seminar and our common research (room 126).

Keynotes: Prof. Frédéric Antoine (University of Louvain).

Participants: Karin Raeymaeckers (University of Ghent), Gordana Vilović (Zagreb), Marina Dekavalla (University of Sussex), Elsa Costa e Silva (University of Minho), Paulo Faustino (University of Porto), Remy Bersipont (University of Louvain).

Coffee break

16:15- 18:15 - Session 2. Methodologies and methods for our common research (room 126).

Keynote: Aske Kammer (IT University of Copenhagen - videoconference)

Participants: Prof. Frédéric Antoine (University of Louvain), Remy Bersipont (University of Louvain), Karin Raeymaeckers (University of Ghent), Gordana Vilović (Zagreb), Marina Dekavalla (University of Sussex), Elsa Costa e Silva (University of Minho), Paulo Faustino (University of Porto).

19:30 - official dinner.

Dinner will be served in Kolegiacki Hotel (Kolegiacki Square 5, Poznań)

Friday, 9 November 2018

9:00 -11:00 - Session 3. Variables and indicators for our common research (room 43)

Participants: Prof. Frédéric Antoine and Remy Bersipont (University of Louvain), Karin Raeymaeckers (University of Ghent), Gordana Vilović (Zagreb), Marina Dekavalla (University of Sussex), Elsa Costa e Silva (University of Minho), Paulo Faustino (University of Porto).

Coffee break

11:15 -12:30 - Conclusions: Implementation of the collective research (room 43)

Chair: Prof. Frédéric Antoine (University of Louvain)

Participants: Karin Raeymaeckers (University of Ghent), Gordana Vilović (Zagreb), Marina Dekavalla (University of Sussex), Elsa Costa e Silva (University of Minho), Paulo Faustino (University of Porto), Remy Bersipont (University of Louvain),

12.30-13.30 – Lunch

Lunch will be served in Faculty's Canteen